2017 DESIGN AND VISUAL ARTS Scholarship Show and Open House | Design Used for Georgian College Event 2017

This Design Show represented a variety of design programs at the college and the poster was essentially a way to reflect them all creatively. The craziness of the hair in the background is to show how we are all connected within each program and have a unique ability to show it in our own way.

Kempenfelt Dental Branding

Kempenfelt Dental logo design as well as stationary that helps brand the company into a unique atmosphere that allows it to have it's own personal revamp. Taking the use of the tooth in a different approach and incorporating it in to a whole design rather stand alone.

Kempenfelt Dental Website

The Kempenfelt Dental website is targeted towards a family audience. It has a welcoming atmosphere that also provides viewers with easy to use navigation with tons of information about the company and the staff that works there.

Reckoner Typeface Double Page Spread

This editorial piece was based on the industrial typeface called Reckoner designed by Alex Dale. What makes this so unique is that all of the images used throughout the spread are pictures shot by Alex Dale himself.
